GOLF COURSES SELECTION

The South-west of France includes over 50 golf courses. Here is our selection:

Golf du Médoc is classed among the top 15 golf courses in continental Europe. As the third best golf course in France by the Rolex Guide, the Golf du medoc offers 2 superbly designed 18 hole courses, Les Châteaux by Bill Coore and the Canadian Rod Whitman.

Located 40 minutes from Bordeaux.

Grand Saint-Emilionnais Golf Club was designed by Tom Doak in 2015. This exceptional course unfolds in a valley fringed by centenary oak trees, framed by vineyards and located just 14 km from Saint-Emilion and 1 hour from Bordeaux.

Golf de Seignosse (Les Landes)

Rated 9th in France, this course was built by the American architect Robert Van Hage and lies in the middle of the pine forest of Les Landes. This hilly and tricky course is known for its narrow fairways.

Located 1:30 away from Bordeaux and 20 minutes from Biarritz.

Golf du Phare - Biarritz

The Biarritz Golf Club, since 1887, has been the great theatre of sportsmen and gathering events. This 18-hole course has been renovated and holds many national and international tournaments. It is a 69 par (5402 m length).

Located 2:00 away from Bordeaux and close to Biarritz centre.

Golf d'Arcangues

Between mountains and ocean, this peaceful golf course stands out because of its many changes in elevation and diversity of holes. Built in 1990 by American architect Ronald Fream, this immaculate course is a training centre for international golfers.

Located 20 minutes from Biarritz
